A RADICAL REBELLION.

Hon. Henry J. Raymond, member of Congress from New York city, and editor in chief of the N. Y. Times, has written a letter announcing the startling fact that the Radical Disunionists are preparing to inaugurate another rebellion. They mean to impeach the President, and if possible, by force of arms, usurp the government of the country. Coming from a leading "Republican," as is Mr. Raymond, who has been able to obtain an inside view of the Radical plot, this announcement is of the most startling and alarming character. Mr. Raymond declares that it is the purpose of the Radical rebels to get up a war of neighborhoods, such another as the English people fought out under the distinctions of the White and Red Roses. If they should succeed in electing a majority of the next Congress, this step will certainly be taken by them as they are determined to get rid of the President. Let the people, therefore, rally to the support of the Executive; let every man and every woman who desire to avert the calamity of another civil war, take the field against the Radicals and help to put them down at the ballot-box. Shall the history of the past four years be repeated? Nay, shall neighborhood be arrayed against neighborhood, family against family, son against father, in bloody and deadly conflict? Oh! men of Pennsylvania, will you not throw yourselves between this Radical Conspiracy and the friends of law and order, and swear that there shall be peace in the land, even unto its utmost borders!

THE READING MASS CONVENTION.

The Democratic Mass Convention held at Reading on the 18th inst., was the largest and most imposing popular assemblage in the history of the past ten years of Pennsylvania politics. From twenty to thirty thousand people were present. Eight stands were erected to speak from, and yet the vast audience could not be fully reached by the speakers. Among the distinguished gentlemen who addressed the people, were HON. HIESTER CLYMER, Democratic candidate for Governor, HON. GEORGE H. PENDLETON, of Ohio, and HON. MONTGOMERY BLAIR, late Postmaster General under Mr. Lincoln. The best feeling prevailed and every body present came away satisfied that the Democracy will sweep the State at the coming election.

CHARGE! DEMOCRATS, CHARGE!

Brothers in a holy cause!

Freemen, patriots—sons of illustrious blood!

Side by side, hand in hand—arm to arm, with a bold front, let us charge upon the fanatical element of our country, the history it has made.

Shoulder to shoulder—
Hearts firm, strong and true!
We never will be conquered
By a Union hating crew!

Would to God that some men with the eloquence of inspiration might now step forth to rivet home upon the Abolitionists of the land the nails they drove through our national wainscoating and paint the tragic history of negroism as we have seen it through years of bloody suffering, and dark hours for the Republic.

Who are traitors?

Who are the original disunionists?

Who are now making war upon the Government?

Who are insulting a fallen foe?

Who are they who trifle with the destinies of God—given America, and seek to cloy their fiendish hate on the mangled corpse of an attempted Confederacy?

Who are the ones who stand up in the rump Congress and insult the soldiers who fought the rebellion back to its lair, by saying the Union is not restored, and that imbecile gutter-snipe legislation can do what the powers of American soldiers failed to accomplish?

Let these questions be asked those who wallow with the rump Congress in its treasonable infamy rather than stand like men by the President in support of the right.

Let us stand true to the sacred principles of Democracy, and charge home upon this fanatical element, which is at war with the Union, that the only traitors now existing are the fanatical members of the Rump Congress and place hunters who endorse their infamous acts. Charge home upon the element which is opposing the country that they sought first and last to divide the Union, and but for the Democracy of the North would have succeeded.

These men sought to—

Break up the Union.

To make the South and North hate each other.

They warred upon the Constitution.

They ignored laws.

They broke their oaths of office.

They perjured themselves before God and man.

They meddled with that which concerned them not.

They trampled the laws under foot.

They elected tyrants and cowards to office.

They turned a war of patriotism into a crusade of plunder.

They put innocent men into prison and guilty men in office.

They sacrificed thousands of brave men on the altar of diabolism and military incompetency.

They took men and money from the people under false pretences.

They killed our men, destroyed our property, and squandered the money we furnished them.

They mobbed people for opinion's sake.

They murdered people in cold blood here in the North for speaking their honest belief.

They have stolen of the poor.

They have protected the rich.

They have lied to the nation, and in drunken glee danced on the coffin lid of their country until the corpse has been awakened to a new life, and a life that will deal in vengeance most terrible if the murderous dance be not stopped at once.

They have draped the land in mourning, populated deep grave yards, made prostitutes, piled billions of taxes upon the workingmen, and now flaunt the shame of their cowardly insolence in the face of a people that fought while our rulers rioted in drunkenness; that died on the battle field while our rulers were stuffling ballot boxes in the North!

Let these crimes, and others, we have not room to mention, be charged home upon the element now at war upon the President, and upon the honest industry of the country North and South.

Democrats have not broken laws, ignored oaths of office, and made a sieve of the Constitution, through which to thrust negroes, political Generals, army contracts and dishonest legislation!

Let these things be charged home to those who rode into power shouting—

Free Speech!
Free Press!
Free Kansas!
A Free People!

RETRENCHMENT AMD REFORM!

How about Free Speech?

And a Free Press?

And a Free People?

And how do you like the arithmetical illustrations of the Black Republican retrenchment and reform?

The country is worse off to-day than it ever was before.

Our debts are a thousand times greater than ever before.

Our ability to pay is less than ever before.

There is more [illegible] and wickedness than ever before.

How do you like the working of Abolitionism?

Answer, and tell us, ye once happy and prosperous workingmen, to whom we are now talking through the pen.

Tell us, farmers, mechanics, sons of the forest, men of toil, and brother victims of this "great" God and morality party, which did so much good in theory, so much evil in practice!

Charge these truths home.

We have charged them home for the last four years.

We have defied their mobs, sneered at their proscription, walked unharmed through attempts at assassination, held aloft the banner of Democracy, and gathered javelins to hurl in the face of our common enemies till the last tyrant or apologist for tyranny and wrong shall be driven from power.

God hates cowardice!

We have the right on our side—we have law, justice, equal rights and the record of honest acts.

What more incentives do we need?

If these are not sufficient, look ahead to the millions who will bless us for wresting the sword from the hands of those who murder innocents.

Open wide the gates of the Republic—open the doors of Democracy.

Hang out your glorious old banner of Democracy.

Appeal to the people.

Defy our enemies.

Stand like men of nerve in defense of our liberty, and charge upon those who will not forsake the errors of their way, the truths of the history they have written in blood and pinned up with bayonets!

This is no time for abject crawling to cross the foot of usurped power.

The future is to be bright, united and happy, or dark, bloody and terrible, as we choose.

If Democracy, in the great struggle now upon us, is successful, the country is saved.—Lacrosse (Wis.) Democrat.

THE other day a member of Congress wishing to say, in fine English, that a friend of his had died, told the House of Representatives, that "his gentlemanly spirit had winged its way to its maker."

The Treasury Department estimates that one-half the fractional currency in the South is counterfeit. The whole of that at the North is a sham, a cheat and a disgrace.

ALL Democrats desire to participate in the grand victory on the second Tuesday of October. Hence all will put their "shoulders to the wheel."

POLITICAL triumphs always did go by turns. This is the Democrats' turn as sure as the sun will rise on the second Tuesday of October.

A Troy negro recently fell from a third story window to the pavement and saved his life by striking head first.

HENRY WARD BEECHER AGAINST THE RADICAL DISUNIONISTS.

Every body has heard of Henry Ward Beecher the distinguished Brooklyn preacher and politician. He has been a life-long Abolitionist, and we believe it was at his suggestion that Mr. Lincoln was nominated for the Presidency in 1860. Whatever may be said of Beecher's fanaticism, we believe no one ever charged him with dishonesty. He was an Abolitionist from principle, and took the bold position that slavery must be abolished or the Union dissolved. No man in our country had more influence over Mr. Lincoln than had Beecher. Indeed, his opinions were all-powerful with the President, much to the chagrin of the smaller lights who hovered about the White House.

Mr. Beecher, with the assistance of Mr. Seward, organized and christened the "Republican party." They owned it, as they owned the President representing its principles. They had one object in view—the abolition of slavery.—That object they accomplished, after a monstrous sacrifice of life and treasure. These two representative men of the Republican party—the fathers of the party—we may call them—after having "fought the good fight" for what they considered a principle, took a survey of the contested field, and what did they see? Nearly the whole of their party followers in open rebellion against the country and the President! Yes, the great Abolition party, with new captains at its head—the Forneys, Kellys, Camerons and other late converts—was in open revolt against the Union! Beecher and Seward were amazed, confounded and grieved. But, they did not hesitate a moment. They resolved at once to expose and fight the rascals who dared raise their impious hands against the union of the States. Both are at work against the Rump Congress and its traitor defenders, and with voice and pen denounce the conspirators in language not to be misunderstood.

Below we give a few extracts from a recent sermon delivered by Mr. Beecher. It will be seen that from a persecuting Saul he has become a friend of peace, ready to meet the enemies of restoration who urge a warfare against the people of the South. He denounces Stevens as a dangerous man, upholding the worst conceivable doctrines. In his opinion we should adopt the principles of the New Testament, rather than the Jewish rule that required an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. We trust that many other ministers vocated the old Jewish mode of treatment, will repent and seek to win the affections of the people by acts of christian love and forbearance. The brutal doctrines of Stevens are not in keeping with the teachings of Christ and His apostles, and should be discarded by all who profess to be governed by the golden rules laid down in the Gospel. Mr. Beecher said:

"I do not know as it is best for me to make any further application. I am aware that I have not been very popular among my people during the last year. My position in public affairs has not carried my friends with me. I am sorry for their sake. I have never had any trouble myself on the subject. I do not hesitate to say that whatever went into the Constitution on account of slavery ought, now that slavery is destroyed, to be taken out; and that whatever should have gone into the Constitution, but was kept out by slavery, ought to go in: but while I hold that these changes ought to be made in the fundamental law of this land, so that our Constitution should represent to its fullest extent the great doctrine of natural and civic rights—while I hold this second to no man in breadth and intensity, and probably held it before most of you held it—yet, on the other hand, God forbid that I should attempt to take a position that would be in the nature of rendering evil for evil, and punishing according to the manner of the Jews. I abhor, with all the strength of Christian love, the doctrine.—Because they have burned others' homes, burn theirs; because they have plundered others, plunder them; because they did wrong confiscate their property; because they were in rebellion, annihilate them. The doctrine which has been propounded by Mr. Stevens in Congress, I regard to be the doctrine of Belial. The worst doctrine of which I can conceive, dwelling in a Christian land, is the doctrine advocated by him, and, I thank God, by only a few others. The true Christian course (which we have now lost the opportunity of adopting) was to have kept union between the President and Congress and instantly to have made such propositions of change as could have effected without delay, making the period as brief as possible, restoring to their original status all parts of our Union, and, by the amplitude of our helpfulness, and the unmistakable disclosures of our sympathy, paying back into their bosom a thousand fold of love that which they had given to us of trouble and mischief. The North should have been a thousand fold more eminently Christian than the South. The people here should have felt and prayed for the people there and should have longed for their well-being; while, though I know that hundreds and thousands have done this, the apathy of the community has been that of a stern cold judge and they have favored paying iota for iota, measure for measure. This is my mourning and regret. And I say, not only in respect to Great Britain and Canada, but also in respect to Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, and the other States that rebelled, that, while I would have been as willing and anxious to defend the rights of the emancipated, and to change the Constitution so as to secure those rights as any other man, I would have done it in connection with a policy that would have requited good for evil abundantly. I feel that it was a mistake that such a course was not pursued, and I believe that we shall not have a national life unchecked and harmonious and generous until we learn to exercise our civil functions as well as our individual functions according to the injunction. "Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, bless them that curse you, and pray for them that despitefully use you." There, go and vote that; you have prayed it long enough, try it.

HOW GEARY'S MILITARY REPUTATION WAS MADE.

The following amusing description of the "no-prefix" candidate for Governor, we clip from the correspondence of the Sunday Mercury, written from Cape may:

Dear Mercury—I'm anchored for the season and am in a most delightful state of preservation. I see by the papers, and hear by many of my friends who came down yesterday, that you "had great times" in "old Philly" on the Fourth. I don't envy you! I dislike all that sort of thing, and witnessed enough "pomp and show" during the war to last me the balance of my days. I was amused though, in reading the graphic accounts of how the thing went off. I should have been glad to have been present for one thing and that was to have noted how Master Geary behaved. I suppose though he kept his vanity down as much as possible—that it did not stick out more than a foot. I have met Geary upon several occasions. I met him at the "Race Course," below Philadelphia, a day or two after Andy Curtin commissioned him Colonel. I met Tom Elliott the same evening—waiting for him at the St. Lawrence Hotel, who introduced his pomposity. The same Tom Elliott, by the way, who made him just what he is. Who, during the war, sung his praises in all of the Philapelphia papers, including the Sunday Mercury, and who spent days and nights in writing up evry little one horse or X Roads skirmish and for what? To glorify the vanity of this man Geary. Elliott has gone to his long home, and I never see Geary's name in print but what I think the honors belong [illegible] Elliott's devotion. One Saturday evening there came a rumor to Washington that Geary had fought a great battle and won a great victory. This was the Saturday preceding McClellan's first march on to Manassas. Washington was full of newspaper indefatigables, who desired to telegraph what few items they had gathered concerning it to their respective journals North. Your correspondent was at that time connected with a New York paper, and along with others went to the telegraph shop, scratched off our "startling," and were politely told by the clerks in attendance that the news "could not go."

"Why?" of course was the next interrogatory.

"Mr. Sanford, censor, forbids it."

Sanford, of course, was wished somewhere else, and a number of correspondents still carry him a grudge that will be paid some day with interest.

On Sunday morning—a bright and beautiful morning it was—my ears were assailed with the cry of "Philadelphia Sunday Mercury! Sunday Dispatch! Full accounts of the great fight!" I invested of course, and then found that Tom Elliott had commenced the work that was to make a great man out of Geary.

"How did they get this news in Philadelphia?" asks one correspondent.

"How did they get it?" replies George Bower, whom you saw interred a few weeks ago—"why Tom Elliott telegraphed it to the Associated Press, of course." And so Tom did.

I last saw Geary in the flesh at Gettysburg, one year ago last Wednesday. There was a number of distinguished people there. Quite a number. Meade was there, and made a speech. Howard was there, and so was Doubleday and Sykes.

Geary rode a splendid black charger. His uniform was the brightest, and his gauntlets just the thing for show. His beard was newly blackened and oiled, and he was, as I have hinted "galius" looking.

And Geary, he was Master of ceremonies. He was splendidly gotten up for the occasion, and he certainly looked very fine, but still resembled anything but a Major General. Governor Curtin introduced me, and Geary, hearing that I was connected with so loyal a journal as the Mercury, remarked that he had just parted in Washington with Tom Florence, Jo Severns and other good fellows. Still I did not, could not like the man, and so told our amiable Governor.

My distaste to Geary arose partly from a prejudice created in my mind towards him by Wein Forney, Esq., the brains of the Harrisburg Telegraph. Geary, it appears, some time previous, had been wounded and was taking things "easy" down the Cumberland Valley. But Forney related how airish every thing was about his castle, and informed me that he had a guard marching front of his house, and was, as might be supposed, the "laughing stock" of the good people of the Valley. Think of that for a Major General, resting home wounded, having a guard posted in front of his boudoir. Stylish, rather, you say. Very much so for plain people to swallow easily.

CAMPAIGN SONG.

[TUNE.—That's What's the Matter.]

We're on the road our Fathers trod,
No more the spy, with treacherous nod,
Can wield a Despot's cruel rod,
And that's what's the matter.

The men whose slanders round us flew,
Who spied, and lied, and mobbed us too,
Can't do just as they used to do,
And that's what's the matter.

Chorus:—That's what's the matter.
Their mobs have had to scatter,
When Andy shot, quacks went to pot,
And that's what's the matter.

Ha'tle Provost scalawags,
And thieves, who stole our money bags,
Don't want us now, to "hist our flags,"
And that's what's the matter.

But always to the Union true,
We'll not desert, because they do,
Here goes the old Red, White and Blue,
And that's what's the matter.

Chorus: That's what's the matter, &c.

"Sustain the President," they said,
"Uphold the Union's dropping head,"
But now they wish that he'd been dead,
And that's what's the matter.

The "President" shall be sustained,"
By faith and loyalty unfeigned,
And Shoddy be to Union chained,
And that's what's the matter.

Chorus: That's what's the matter, &c.

We're for the Union, as before,
The Constitution, and no more,
We swear the oath old Jackson swore,
And that's what's the matter.

The traitorous "Rump," it need, must feel,
The People's wrath, the People's steel!
They shall not harm the Public Weal,
And that's what's the matter.

Chorus: That's what's the matter, &c.

We've heard Thad's whip in Congress crack,
We've seen the "Niggers" at his back,
He hates the White, and loves the Black,
And that's what's the matter.

But don't you hear the White Men Shout?
Old Thad and Charles, are now played out,
And the great Fifteen have got the goat!
And that's what's the matter!

Chorus: That's what's the matter, &c.

AN ELOQUENT LAWYER TOUCHES HIS OWN CLIENT.—The Baton Rouge Advocate tells the following:

Last week a case came up before the jury, and the District Attorney had exhausted all his eloquence in the attempt to convict a darkey for stealing a goose. The Judge was tired, the jury wearied, and the bar officials and spectators, all hoped the case would be speedily closed, but they were doomed to disappointment. Up rose the old Major, the hero of a thousand contests at the bar, and for two hours a flow of eloquence poured forth upon the ears of the jury, evidently convincing them of the prisoner's innocence. Shrugs and gestures denoted that all they wanted was a chance to get out of the jury corner, and the goose, darkie, prosecutor and all concerned might go to Guinea if they could be released. The Major piled it on thick; he showed them law after law, read Supreme Court condensed decisions, referred to everything relative to geese, from the Roman time down to the present, and closed his brilliant appeal by calling their attention to the honest countenance of his client; "could such a man steal—the Heavens forbid; look at his face, you percieve sterling honesty in every lineament—could you steal, prisoner at the bar, could you steal a—goose?"—eat um," [illegible] steal [illegible] and the gallant Major, thunderstruck and exhausted, caved.

Rev. W. F. Boydkin, a "burnin'" and "shinin' light" in the "Union party," in Yamhill county, Oregon, recently drugged and outraged the persons of two daughters of a minister in whose house he was staying, while delivering a series of lectures on Revelations.

—In San Francisco the police have discovered a gang of thieves, the oldest of whom is not over sixteen or seventeen years of age, with a regular organization, who have constructed caverns underneath sidewalks in unfrequented localities, in which they burrow, and from which they construct tunnels to adjacent stores conveying their stolen goods thence to the upper air.

—A despatch from Charleston, dated yesterday, states that on Thursday evening a mutiny broke out among the negro troops on Folly Island which was not suppressed until one of the mutineers was killed and two wounded. The rest of the mutineers were taken to Charleston under guard.

Judge Jeffreys, of notorious memory, pointing with his cane to a man who was about to be tried, said: "There is a great rogue at the end of my cane." The man to whom he pointed, looking at him, said: "At which end, my lord?"

No two human beings were ever alike either in body or mind. In other words, nature has been engaged in making men and women for six thousand years without making one that she thought it worth while to repeat.

A gentleman writes that he has found that immersing hens in cold water a few times will cure them of setting.—Hens will not return to their nest until dry which will give the eggs time to get cold. It is seldom necessary to repeat the immersion more than once.

—A Cincinnati company, with a capital of $100,000, proposes to establish a mammoth garden and furnish vegetables at one half the present prices.

—A man who had deserted from the Confederate army and hidden in the Titi Swamp, Florida, recently came out, having "heard the war was over, and he wanted to get paroled."

—T. J. Warren, a bankrupt merchant of Cincinnati committed suicide on Friday of last week, by jumping into the Ohio river.

—The Cincinnati people did not take kindly to Pike's proposition, and so Pike wouldn't build them an Opera House. So the Cincinnatians, like miners sometimes, suffer from Pike's pique.

NEW VOLUME.

With this week begins the tenth year of our publication of the GAZETTE, and the second of the firm of Meyers & Mengel. We return thanks to the public for their patronage and hope to merit a full share of the same in the future. We renew our usual offer to furnish the GAZETTE at advance rates to all who will pay by the first period we can't afford to do so. To those in arrears we would address just one word of expostulation. You are required to pay your arrearages within three months from this date. After that time we will be compelled to use the most stringent measures to enforce collection. We have been dunning to no purpose long enough. There is also a large sum of money due us for estate printing, for which we have waited several years. We desire to remind Administrators, Executors, &c., that our terms for such printing, are cash, and when we deviate from this rule, it is only for their special accommodation. We hope that there will be no necessity for the repetition of this notice to delinquents.

THE Rump Congress adjourned on Saturday. Honest men, everywhere, will draw a long breath of relief. The country will thank God for a deliverance greater than that of the Jews from bondage, or Egypt from vermin. The policy of the ruling faction has been fanatical, tyrannical and revolutionary. Their legislation has been the most reckless, extravagant and dangerous ever known in the history of the country. Millions were spent as flippantly as though money had no value. The appropriations reached more than six hundred millions, nearly as much as any year during the war. Scarcely a bill was passed without the negro in it: and the sums spent to support the vast national scheme of negro pauperism were almost fabulous. They passed the bill to pay liberal bounties to negro volunteers by the usual party majority; but when the bill for the equalization of bounties of white soldiers came up, the increased pay at first proposed ($8½ per month) was reduced nearly one half, and even then it only passed by a vote of 51 to 50, every Democrat, except two, voting in its favor. As a fit finale of their prolifigate career, they increased their own pay from $3,000 to $5,000 per session, making the snug little sum of $10,000 to every member of each Congress besides mileage. Every citizen should read their proceedings carefully. No other proof is needed that they will establish a central despotism and bankrupt the country if they are continued in power.

CONGRESSMEN have evidently made up their minds that they will not be re-elected and are stealing all the money they can.

THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.

The National Union Convention which will meet in Philadelphia, on the 14th inst., promises to be a true representation of the people of the entire Republic. It will be the first convention composed of representatives from all the States, that has assembled since the meeting of the Democratic National Convention in 1860. In this respect, as well as in that of diversity in political opinion, it will be truly national. Whilst the "Republican" party will be largely represented in its councils, Democrats from every section of the country will sit by their side; whilst the "war men" of the North will take part in its deliberations, the Stephenses, Johnsons and other prominent Southern men will join hands with them in furthering the long-hoped-for restoration of the Union. It is meet that such will be the case. Were men of one political party alone to assemble in such a convention, no good could possibly result, as there could be no opportunity of harmonizing diverse interests in behalf of a common cause. We are willing to regard any man as a political brother, who will work with us for the attainment of the grand purpose for which all patriots should strive, the maintenance, unbroken, of the Union of the States. Hence, we are glad that in this National Union Convention, men of various and widely different political antecedents, will meet and exchange opinions. The result of the deliberations of such an assemblage, will prove like that of the Constitutional Conventions of the fathers, who, though divided on great public questions, so harmonized their conflicting views, as to erect a government under whose sway the march of empire has been unlimited, and which, except during its temporary perversion by corrupt and ambitious men, proved the unfailing safeguard of popular liberty for nearly a century.

THE RADICAL REBELLION.

The letter of Henry J. Raymond, "Republican" member of Congress from New York, exposing the scheme of the Radicals to depose the President and inaugurate a rebellion in the North, has produced much alarm among peace-loving and patriotic people. Mr. Raymond has been in the caucuses of the Radicals, and knows whereof he affirms. He declares that they mean war; that they are quietly arming themselves with a view of forcing President Johnson from the Executive chair, or the Northern members of the next Congress, impeach the President, and attempt to turn him out of office. They calculate that the President will recognize the members of Congress elect from the Southern States, and the Conservative members from the North, (provided these constitute a majority of Congress) as the lawful Congress; and they will then set themselves up as an opposition Congress, and appeal to arms to sustain their authority. This, it is alleged, will occur, if they succeed in electing a majority of the Northern members. Now, then, the question arises, Shall the people, by voting for Radical candidates for Congress, run the risk of another war? There can be no doubt as to the fact that the Radical leaders have determined to involve the country in a revolution, rather than permit the Southern States to be restored to the Union without Negro Suffrage. Let the people be warned. Remember that a leading "Republican" member of Congress, charges the Radicals with this scheme of a new rebellion. It is no idle tale gotten up for the purpose of making political capital. If Radicalism is successful at the coming election, we fear for the peace of the country. Again, we say, beware!

EX-PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.

The venerable ex-president, James Buchanan, is at present staying at Bedford Springs. On Saturday last he paid a visit to our town, stopping for a short time at the Mengel House. Mr. Buchanan looks well and seems to bear the weight of years without any visible effect upon his constitution. His numerous friends in this section will be delighted to know that he is again in their midst, the same true friend of the masses, as when in earlier days he mingled with them in the public affairs of the country.

THE New York Herald, of July 26, contains a number of sharp things on the "job" work done by the present Congress. We take pleasure in transferring these "hits" to our columns, and desire our readers to give credit to the Herald for every line in this issue that has the word "job" in it.

A VERY SERIOUS JOB.—With a revenue of over two hundred millions above what is demanded, Congress pile on taxation by increasing the tariff and internal revenue tax thirty eight millions, and raises the compensation of members to five thousand dollars per session.

EQUALIZATION OF BOUNTIES.

The contest in Congress over the bill to equalize the bounties, was prolonged from the beginning to the end of the session. The House passed the bill; the Senate defeated it; the House insisted upon its passage; the Senate persisted in its opposition; finally, on the last day of the session, a committee of conference of the two houses agreed to hitch the bill to the Civil Appropriation list and to tack it to the tail of the proposition to increase the pay of Members and Senators to $5,000. This plan pulled the bounty bill through by a majority of one in the House, the vote standing yeas 51, nays 50. The Democrats voted for the bill, as they had always done before, and had it not been for their almost unanimous support, it would have been lost. More 'Republicans' voted against than for it. Among those voting against it, are Messrs. Lawrence, Koontz, and Wilson, of this State. We have not seen the bill, as it passed, but it is reported that the amount of bounty originally proposed was considerably reduced. The vote upon the bill was as follows, Democrats in Italics, Republicans in Roman:

Yeas.—Anderson, Banks, Barker, Benjamin, Bergen, Clarke of Kansas, Cullom, Driggs, Eckley, Eldridge, Farnsworth, Farquhar, Ferry, Glossbrenner, Higby, Hogan, Holmes, Hotchkiss, Hubbard, Ingersoll, Jencks, Johnson, Kelley, Kerr, Kuykendall, Latham, Le Blond, Leftwitch, Marston, Maynard, McClurg, McCullough, Miller, Moorhead, Myers, Newell, Niblack, Nicholson, O'Neil, Patterson, Randall, of Pa., Rice of Mass., Rice of Me., Schenck, Strouse, Taylor of Tenn., Taylor of N. Y., Thornton, Van Horn of N. Y., Van Horn of Mo., Wadley.—51.

Nays.—Allison, Ashley of Nevada, Baker, Baxter, Bidwell, Bingham, Boutwell, Bromwell, Cobb, Conkling, Defrees, Eggleston, Eliot, Finck, Garfield, Harding of Illinois, Hart, Hayes, Hubbell of Ohio, Kasson, Ketchum, Koontz, Laflin, Lawrence of Pennsylvania, Lawrence of Ohio, Lynch, Mercer, Morrill, Morris, Orth, Paine, Perham, Phelps, Plants, Price, Ritter, Ross, Sawyer, Shanklin, Shellabarger, Stokes, Taber, J. L. Thomas, Jr., James Trimble, Van Aernam, Walker, Wilson of Iowa, Wilson of Pennsylvania, Wright,—50.

THE Radical leaders here are sending out documents by the bushel. They have a complete registry of the voters of the county, each being marked "Republican," "Democrat," or "Doubtful." Such Democrats as they imagine they can wheedle into their views, are marked "Doubtful," and supplied plentifully with electioneering pamphlets filled with falsehoods of the basest character. Among these is one entitled, "Is the Democratic party or the Northern members of the next Congress, impeach the President, and attempt to turn him out of office. They calculate that the President will recognize the members of Congress elect from the Southern States, and the Conservative members from the North, (provided these constitute a majority of Congress) as the lawful Congress; and they will then set themselves up as an opposition Congress, and appeal to arms to sustain their authority. This, it is alleged, will occur, if they succeed in electing a majority of the Northern members. Now, then, the question arises, Shall the people, by voting for Radical candidates for Congress, run the risk of another war? There can be no doubt as to the fact that the Radical leaders have determined to involve the country in a revolution, rather than permit the Southern States to be restored to the Union without Negro Suffrage. THE ATLANTIC CABLE!

Europe and America connected by Telegraph!

The Great Eastern arrived at Heart's Content, at nine o'clock, A. M., Saturday, July 28, having paid out the entire length of the Atlantic Telegraph Cable. Cyrus W. Field, the indefatigable manager of the great enterprise, at once sent the following despatch to New York:

"HEART'S CONTENT, July 28.—We arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning. All well. Thank God! The cable has been laid and is in perfect working order."

The following correspondence also took place between Mr. Field and the President:

HEART'S CONTENT, July 28.

To his Excellency, President Johnson, Washington, D. C.

SIR: The Atlantic Cable was successfully completed this morning. I hope that it will prove a blessing to England and the United States, and increase the intercourse between our own country and the Eastern hemisphere.

Yours, faithfully,
(Signed) CYRUS W. FIELD.

To Cyrus W. Field, Heart's Content:

I heartily congratulate you and trust that your enterprise may prove as successful as your efforts have been persevering. May the cable under the sea tend to promote harmony between the Republic of the West and the governments of the Eastern hemisphere.

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON.

Several despatches were received from Europe. There seems to be no doubt of the successful working of the cable. Truly this is an era in the history of civilization.

THE Williamsport Union Republican, edited by D. S. Dunham, and flaunting at its mast-head, the name of John W. Geary for Governor, declares that Thad Stevens is a Disunionist and in favor of Congress giving the negroes the right to vote. The Union Republican is at present engaged in a controversy with the West Branch Bulletin, a radical paper, and thus speaks of that journal, and its beau ideal of a statesman, Thad Stevens:

Thaddeus Stevens says: "with my consent the union never shall be restored."

The West Branch Bulletin supports Thad. in all his acts and sayings. This paper denounces all such traitorous sentiments.

Thad. Stevens says: "that eleven states are out of the union and must remain out."

The Bulletin repeats and endorses Thad's sentiments.

The Union Republican says no state can legally secede from the union, consequently all the states remain in the union.

Thad. Stevens is in favor of Congress giving all negroes the right of suffrage, thereby increasing the representation in Congress from the South, (if those states should ever be restored) and decreasing it in the North.

The Bulletin cries amen to Thad's says on the and endorses all that Thad

This paper says that constitutional right to [illegible] negro voters; that that right belongs to the individual states, and opposes the idea that negroes should be endowed with the right of franchise in Pennsylvania.

That is very good, Mr. Union Republican! But what business has John W. Geary's name at your mast-head, if you hold such sentiments?

NEGRO RIOT AT NEW ORLEANS.

A terrible riot has just occurred in the city of New Orleans, growing out of a demonstration of the negroes in honor of the re-assembling of the defunct Banks State Convention of 1864. A procession of negroes was passing along one of the streets, when a white man was tripped by a negro, and a policeman undertaking to arrest the latter he was at once fired upon by the negroes, whereupon a row ensued which soon assumed the proportions of a most fearful riot. The Mayor and police finally succeeded in restoring order, but not until a number of negroes and several whites were killed, and many of both colors wounded. This is another episode in the history of black and white equality. Such are the workings of the Civil Rights Bill. Riot, bloodshed and anarchy are its legitimate results. Who would vote so as to endorse it?

THE AUSTRO-PRUSSIAN WAR.

The latest news from Europe is to the effect that a treaty of peace has been signed by Austria and Prussia.—What is the nature of this treaty, we are not informed. The news was received by the Atlantic Telegraph. The Prussians had still continued their victorious march and had entered Darmstadt. The main Prussian army was within fifty miles of Vienna. A five days armistice, commencing on the 23d ult., was agreed upon between the two powers. The Italians had taken the "Borgo Fort." The Austrian commander in the Tyrol claims to have driven the Italians across Caffara river. A gunboat fight had occurred off Lissa, the Austrians claiming the victory.

A PERSONAL JOB.—Congress demands retrenchment in the departments, and raises the compensation of members to five thousand dollars per session.

CONGRESS votes to pay itself more money for remaining in session to legislate against the people and in favor of Radical officeholders.

A PRECIOUS JOB.—Congress proposed to give twenty millions' worth of valuable mineral lands to the New York and Montana Mining Company, a swindle fortunately detected and smashed by the President, and increases the pay of members to five thousand dollars per session.

AN IMMENSE JOB.—Congress grants millions of acres of public lands and binds itself in the sum of nearly sixty millions of dollars to aid in the gigantic job of building the Northern Pacific Railroad, and at the same time raises the pay of members to five thousand dollars per session.

A CRACKING JOB.—Congress raises the salary of its members to five thousand dollars per session, and compels the government to pay the national banks thirty millions per annum in the shape of interest on government bonds for the privilege of having Treasury notes and legal tenders superseded as currency.

A BAD JOB.—Congress raises the compensation of members to five thousand dollars per session, and proposes to lend Mexico thirty millions of dollars, the revenue of that country being collected by French officers to satisfy French claimants.

A DOWN EAST PEDAGOGUE JOB.—Congress proposes to establish a Bureau of Education, at a cost of five millions per annum, and increases the pay of members to five thousand dollars per session.

A CHARITY JOB.—Congress raises the salary of its members to five thousand dollars per session, and gives seven millions in one lump for another great charity humbug called the Freedmen's Bureau.

A HEAVY JOB.—Congress proposes to aid in constructing levees on the Mississippi and Yazoo rivers at an ultimate cost of fifty millions, and raises the pay of members to five thousand dollars per annum.

A SLY JOB.—Congress proposes to fund the national debt and sell surplus gold, allowing a per centage for the business to outsiders, and raises the pay of members to five thousand dollars.

CONGRESS meanly cuts off the salary of Minister Harvey, because he wrote a private letter in defence of the President, but increases its own salary, earned only by abusing the President.

A CONTEMPTIBLE JOB.—Congress cuts down the bounty to poor soldiers, raises the salary of members to five [illegible] per annum, and squanders over two hundred and fifty millions uselessly.

CONGRESS votes to increase its pay for protecting British commerce by preventing our vessels sold during the rebellion from coming back under our flag.

CONGRESS, having robbed the public treasury in every other way, now makes a direct grab at the greenbacks by an increase of salaries.

CONGRESS votes to increase its own salary, but defeats the Bankrupt bill, designed to relieve poor debtors.

CONGRESS is going to pay itself a higher salary for keeping the Union dissolved.

ST. CLAIR TOWNSHIP,
7 Mo., 27th day, 1866.

FRIEND BENJAMIN:—Thy neighbors here of the opposition, were a good deal shocked at cutting the head off of the soldier who had his leg cut off during the war. So many professions being made for the soldier, led us to think he deserved some consideration; but this serves to show the difference between practice and profession.—The Bedford Inquirer's appeal to the "boys in blue," is getting to be well understood. Like the mother's advice to her son, who afterwards went to jail, for stealing: "Make money my son, honestly if you can, but make money!" the opposition say: "Make votes, white or black, but make votes!" Two of our neighbors whom you know very well, had a talk, the other day, and being brothers, it was in good earnest; when George said to William: "They (the negroes) must have their vote—anything to beat the d——d Democrats." I give thee their precise language. Such is the desperation of thy opponents. Thee must buckle on thy armor and fight against this corrupt scheme of Negro Suffrage. It is the key to all our troubles. The opposition must not be allowed to hide it as they did before. The "Freedmen's Bureau" bill, costing us millions a year to pay agents who are too lazy to work, freedmen who are too lazy to keep themselves and speculators who get the contracts to supply provisions, is another thing thee should expose.—We tax-payers are getting tired and becoming restless. Patience may cease to become a virtue, but we desire relief from our burdens, peaceably, through the ballot-box. Greedy politicians and speculators have been making enough off the people. Thy opposition neighbors here are beginning to see these things in their true light, and I can assure thee that some improtant changes are going on.

If any thing of importance turns up I may drop thee a note.

THY FRIEND.

Delegates to the National Union Convention.

The Executive Committee of the State Central Committee of the Democratic party of this State have suggested the following list of delegates to the National Union Convention.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS,
828 WALNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA,
July 21, 1866.

A call for a National Convention to be held in Philadelphia on the 14th day of August, 1866, having been issued, an invitation was extended, under date of July 10, 1866, to the Democratic organization, as such, to unite in that Convention, in order to "devise a plan of political action calculated to restore national unity, fraternity and harmony."

The time being too brief to call a State Convention, or to refer the subject to the districts for action, and it appearing to be the wish of the party, as expressed at Reading and through the press, that we should be represented therein, the Democratic Executive Committee of Pennsylvania, acting under the authority of the State Central Committee, specially reserving control of the organization, have designated and invited the following gentlemen to act as delegates to that Convention:

JACK HAMILTON'S CONVENTION.

We have already noticed a call for a soi disant Southern Radical Convention [illegible] Convention, of men of all parties, from all sections of the Union. The New York News thus gives the lives and history of some of the signers to Jack Hamilton's call:

"Three of them profess to be citizens of Texas. Not one of them is a resident of that state. 'Governor' Hamilton left it some time ago, declaring that he never expected to reside there again, and he is now in Washington. George W. Paschall, whose suspected treason to the Confederacy was magnanimously over-looked by its government during all the war, is now living in Washington and practicing law there. Lorenzo Sherwood resides in the city of Brooklyn, and has a law-office in this city. These are the Texans.

Two Georgians sign the call G. W. Ashburn and Henry C. Cole. Neither of them is known to a hundred men outside of his county. They are both Northern men by birth and education. One of them is a correspondent of a Boston paper, and as such is the malignant slanderer of the people among whom he lives.

Eight sign as citizens of virginsa. Except Underwood, whose infamy has made him notorious, these men are all utterly insignificant and unknown. One of them, Lewis McKenzie, is a rather respectable person. Another, the Rev. J. W. Hunnicutt is a crackbrained, addlepated sort of a fellow, whom every one laughs at, a South Carolinian by birth. The remaining six are all natives of the North.

The signers from Alabama are with the exception of Mr. George Reese, so obscure and unknown, that we venture to say that they have never been heard of ten miles from their homes. We are somewhat suprised that Mr. Reese appended his name to the call, if, indeed, it was placed there by his authority. The four Missourians who sign the paper are a part of the scum that was thrown to the surface of the filthy political pool of that State by the terrible agitations of the war. If there is a man in all the land who can tell us anything about the two North Carolinians whose names grace the call, we shall be obliged to him for the information.

These are the men who have called a Convention of 'the Loyal Unionists the South' to meet at Philadelphia on the first Monday in September."

THERE is a paper in Mobile called the Nationalist, owned and edited by blacks. It has a colored correspondent at New Orleans, who expresses his appreciation of the Bureau in the following language. He says:

"A thousand times better would it be for the colored men were it abolished, for, instead of being a safeguard and protection for the freedmen, it is only a place in which freedmen's rights are bartered away; it serves only to engender bitterness and hatred in the hearts of the very people with whom we expect to live, die, and be buried."

MR. GREELY DEFINES HIS POSITION.—In answer to a letter addressed to him from Waukegan, Mr. Greely has written the following letter.

YES SIR:—I would bail Davis, or you, or any other culprit that the government would shamefully keep in jail more than a year, resisting and denying his just and legal demand that he be arraigned and tried, or let go. Yours truly. HORACE GREELY.

Mr. J. WILSON, Jr., Waukegan.

FEDERAL JUSTICE.—The Age has culled the following from the voluminous testimony taken before the miscalled Reconstruction Committee of Congress. It is part of the testimony of Judge Underwood, before whom Jefferson Davis will be tried next fall. The reader would not fail to see, if he should ever read any considerable amount of the "testimony" taken by this committee, that it has about as much to do with the price of corn as it has with the subject of reconstruction:

Q. What is the standing at present in Virginia of Jefferson Davis in point of popularity?

A. He is not as popular as General Lee by any means. He is however, regarded as their representative man, but I know that he is not really as highly esteemed as many others.

Q. What are some of the principal defects in his administrative career?

A. I think they have complained of his want of firmness, as they called it, and his leniency to prisoners. He is certainly not as popular as General Lee.

But now comes the most remarkable part of all, as to which, reading in the nineteenth century, we rub our eyes and wander if it can be reality:

Q. Could either Jefferson Davis or Robert E. Lee be convicted of treason in Virginia?

A. O no! unless you had a packed jury.

Q. Could you manage to pack a jury there.

A. I think it would be very difficult, but it could be done. I could pack a jury to convict him.

This is the creature that Abraham Lincoln appointed a judge in virginia, and this is he who now administers justice. We have nothing more to say.

A JOKE ON GEARY, THE HERO OF SNICKERVILLE.—At Cape May, the other evening, Heller the world renowned wizard gave an entertainment, which was largely attended by the sojourners at the Cape. Somebody asked Heller if by second sight, or any other of his wonderful powers, he could foretell who would be next Governor of Pennsylvania? He answered, "That while Geary was a swift runner, his rival had the best chance of elevation, being a Hiester as well as Clymer. This brought the house down with three hearty cheers for Hiester Clymer, the entire audience rising to their feet, joined in the hurrah. Three groans were proposed for the hero of Snicker's Gap. Such groans would have scared Geary worse than he ever was scared before.—Patriot & Union.

THE THREE MONTHS EXTRA PAY.—Congress lately passed an act giving three months extra pay to all officers in service at the close of the rebellion.—We'd like to know why the privates were left off the list. The amount the officers get amounts to over a million dollars, and is distributed as follows:

Infantry, nett tax off—Colonels, $270 75; lieutenant colonels, $228 00; Majors, $199 50; captains, adjutants, regimental quartermasters, $171 50; 1st lieutenants, $142,50; 2d lieutenants, $128 25.

Cavalry—Colonels, $313 50; lieutenant colonels, $270 75; majors and surgeons, $228 00; captains, a. a. generals, com. of subsistence and assistant quartermasters, $199 50; regimental quartermasters, $180 50; lieutenants and assistant surgeons, $152 00.

CHASING THE GREENBACKS.—The New York Herald and the Ledger published a statement that the Department of the Treasury under Chase was minus thirty millions of greenbacks. Why did not the Black Republican Committee on the Conduct of the war investigate this statement? Why did not some [illegible] Senator express surprise at this statement? Did the Senate agree to adjourn so soon in order to prevent investigation? Is this statement, like that in regard to "cotton frauds," to be hush'd up under the Radical cry of the negro is better than the white man, and ought to vote? Is the negro to elect Congressmen who will not investigate into the corruption of the "loyal" administration? It seems so. This is the best way to pay the national debt!—Age.

THE GREAT QUESTION??—The great question with the negroites is, how shall we manage so that the MINORITY can RULE the majority? How shall we, the disunion minority, manage to KEEP our hands IN the national TREASURY?

These are the two great questions in one! The minority MUST RULE because WE are the minority! The negro must vote, because he will vote with "WE" the minority! The Union must be divided, and usurpation be resorted to, or else WE, the minority will be out voted!—Northumberland Democrat.

—Gen. Francis P. Blair, Jr., has brought a suit for damages against the Missouri Democrat, a Republican paper, published at St. Louis, for charging that he appropriated china and silver ware to his own use whilst with the Federal army in South Carolina. He has also instituted suit against Jas. Lindsey, of Iron county, Missouri, for publishing a letter charging him with cotton stealing whilst in the army. One hundred thousand dollars damages are claimed in each case.

—When Portland was burned by the British in 1775, an infant but a few weeks old was removed from a house on Fore street, and taken out of town for safety. The house was burned down. During the conflagration on the Fourth, that same infant was removed from a house erected on the spot where stood the one burned by Mowatt, from which ninety years ago, she had been removed, and she was once more taken to a place of safety. It was the venerable Miss Hannah Thoro.

—The great Fires which have taken place in every direction since the beginning of the present year must have suprised every one. Thus far they have far exceeded in the amount of loss every previous year. The reported losses for 1866 amount to $46,000,000, while those of the entire year 1865 were $43,130,000. Many of the most destructive fires have been the acts of incendiaries. Crimes like this seem to be under the direct agency of the devil.

—A band of outlaws lately went to a farm-house in Overton County, Tenn., and forcibly took the farmer, named Gunter, to the woods, stripped him, and were whipping him, when his daughter heard his screams, and seizing a hatchet, she ran to the rescue and killed two of the ruffians and wounded others, and liberated her father.

—A colored fellow assaulted a woman at St. Louis, recently, but finding her too strong for him struck her with an axe. She still resisted him, when he shot at her four times from a revolver. The woman now pitched in, knocked him down, took his revolver, and was about shooting when the wretch got up and escaped. She kept his weapon for another emergency.

—There are 7,449 Odd Fellows in California. They own thirty halls, valued at $300,000, and other property valued at $500,000.

EDITORIAL VISITOR.—J. M. COOPER, Esq., of the Lancaster Intelligencer, has been spending some time in our midst. Mr. Cooper is one of the "old guard" of the editorial corps, having at different times been connected with some of the most prominent Democratic journals of the State. He was for many years the editor of the Chambersburg Valley Spirit, afterwards of the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian, and in 1860 published a very able campaign journal in Harrisburg. Some years ago, he became one of the proprietors of the Lancaster Intelligencer, one of the spiciest little dailies in the State, in the publication of which he is still engaged. May he live long enough to see the day when Lancaster county will give as large a Democratic majority as will be rolled up for Clymer, next fall, by her neighbor Berks.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT CITIZEN.—It is with regret that we announce the death of Philip J. Shoemaker, Esq., of Colerain tp., which took place at his residence, on Monday last. Mr. Shoemaker was one of the best citizens of our county and his death will be mourned by a large circle of friends. He served as County Commissioner during the trying times of the late war, and his official course was always marked by a rigid adherence to the interests of the many, as against the schemes of the few. Strictly honest in his dealings with all men, upright in public as well as private life, a christian in the true sense of the term, he has gone to an honored grave, where hope points eternally to an immortal life beyond the confines of mortality. Peace to his ashes.

RETURNED CALIFORNIANS.—It gives us pleasure to state that LIEUT. JOHN KEEFFE, formerly of this place, but for many years a resident of California, is now on a visit to his old friends in this place. LIEUT. KEEFFE, it will be remembered, was a gallant soldier of the Mexican war, having served with great credit in the noble Pennsylvania Second. We also note the return of Mr. William Barclay, who has been absent for many years. Both of these gentlemen have many friends in old Bedford, who are glad once more to look upon their faces.

IN TOWN.—Our young friends Capt. C. R. Miller and Mr. James Duffy, who have been absent for some time, are at present on a visit to their friends in this place, both looking well as usual.

JOHN P. REED, Jr. Esq., now of the New York bar, and Dr. Mengel Reed, of Philadelphia, are at present on a visit to their relatives in this place, both in good health and spirits.

GRUMBLERS, TAKE NOTICE.—All you who grumble because the innocent little flies are so plenty this summer, go to Lewis' Drug Store and get the "Lightning Fly Killer." A large stock of Drugs, Perfumery, Stationery, &c., just received and opened, this day, at Lewis' Drug Store.

RESOLUTE VS. JUNIATA.—A game of base ball, was played between the first nine of the Resolute Club and the first nine of the Juniata Club, both of this place, on Wednesday, 25th ult. The Resolute is a Junior Club, but its members are excellent players. The score stood as follows:

JUNIATA VS. SOCIAL CLUB OF HUNTINGDON.—On Thursday afternoon, July 23, a match game was played between the Social Base Ball Club of Huntingdon, and the Juniata Base Ball Club of this place, upon the grounds of the latter. The Juniatas played at a great disadvantage, owing to the illness of their Captain, Alex. Lyon, who was able to play but a few innings in the game. Reamer, catcher of the Juniata, was also indisposed. Still, considering all the circumstances, the Juniatas made a good fight. The score of 20 on the 7th inning, run up by the Social, gave them the victotory. But the Social won the game fairly, and we say "honor to whom honor is due." The following is the score:

WE learn that the manufacturers of the Gum Roller Grain Drills, will not be able to supply the demand this season. Messrs. Hartley & Metzgar have already sold several car loads, and we fear some of our farmers will put off buying too long, and thereby lose more than enough to pay for one from the next grain crop. We pity any man who will be seen, in this age, lugging a bag of grain over his shoulder, in earth half-knee deep, back and forth over a 20 acre field.

THE regular monthly meeting of the Juniata B. B. C., will be held in the Jury Room, on Monday, Aug. 6, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. All members of the club are requested to be present as questions of vital importance are to be decided upon. By order of the President. W. A. NICODEMUS,
Sec'y.

PURIFY THE BLOOD.—If the blood be pure the body which is formed from and by the blood cannot be diseased. But if there be in any part of the body any affection, such as a boil or ulcer, even a bruise, the blood circulating through that part takes up impure matters from the local affection and carries it into the general system—This is the cause often of sudden death to persons of full habit afflicted with boils and ulcers, and who use no medicine, the matter gets into the circulating system and chokes up the fine blood vessels which supply the brain with vitality, and life ceases as if Bereft by Lightning.
Now this can be remedied.

If it does not give relief the money will be refunded. All that is asked is a trial, and use it according to the directions.

DR. TOBIAS.—Dear Sir: I have used your Venitian Liniment in my family for a number of years, and believe it to be the best article for what it is recommended that I have ever used. DIED.

REED—On Friday 20th ult., near Saxton, Marian Reed, in the 38th year of her age.

In the death of this venerable lady we are made to feel that another sister in Israel and, as may be truly said, a nursing sister of the church, has gone from toil to rest. Pure and dignified in sentiment, feeling and conduct, the deceased was a member of the Winebrennerian Church. She remained a constant member of the same to the latest hour of her earthly existence. Her end was peace.

Home again! Home again!
From a foreign shore;
And now I'll get some handsome clothes
From LIPPEL'S Clothing Store.

But none like their's can find;
To such as I could get abroad,

My countenance to fall,
To buy such clothes from others,
When I thought of LIPPEL'S Hall.

Oh, you are highly favored,
Who live on Juniata shore,
For you can always get your clothes
At LIPPEL'S Clothing Store.

And all who have to travel,
Will these my words recall;
For none make clothes as good and cheap
As those at LIPPEL'S Hall.

Where you can always find the largest stock of MEN and BOY'S CLOTHING, together with PIECE GOODS for Custom order. Also a lot of DRY GOODS and GROCERIES. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for goods.

MISHLER'S BITTERS
WILL
CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN!

Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—

1st. Scrofula.—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by vice. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that they fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires gonorhœa, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, it is channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it acts on the internal organs, and scrofula, which is bequeathed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorality and vice are afflicted with scrofula They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laboring under the curse inscribed inscribed in the Book of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

To cure this dreadful complain it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics. Look at the articles used in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating medicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that Mishler's Bitters will Cure all kinds of Scrofulous Diseases.

It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonic and it will cure Scrofula.

2d, Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and ulcers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but making bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now [illegible] and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is Mishler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.

3d. Salt Rheum.—Salt Rheum is a vague, indefinite, though, popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or spread over the adjoining surface. Mishler's bitters are a sure cure for this disease.

4 h. Pimples and Blotches.—Pimples and Blotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncles, they are very disagreeable.—Often we will see the most handsome features rendered hideous by great blotches and pimples, and instead of the pleasing look which should irradiate the human face we see nothing but disgusting corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the corrupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladies who desire a fair complection, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind.

ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1866, Messrs. TICKNOR & FIELDS began the publication of a weekly journal entitled
EVERY SATURDAY:
A JOURNAL OF CHOICE READING,
SELECTED FROM FOREIGN CURRENT LITERATURE.

Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once attractive and inexpensive. The publishers believe that such a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only entertaining and instructive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the better class.

EVERY SATURDAY is intended for town and country, for the fireside, the seaside, the railway and the steamboat. Its plan embraces Incidents of Travel and Adventure, Essays Critical and Descriptive, Serial Tales, Short Stories, Poems, Biographies, Literary Intelligence, etc., in connection with judicious selections from the admirable popular papers on science which are constantly appearing in foreign periodicals. The value of these papers arises from the fact that scientific subjects, however harsh and dry in themselves, are here treated in so graphic and picturesque a style as to charm the reader while instructing him.

It will be, in short, the aim of its publishers that EVERY SATURDAY shall commend itself by its freshness and variety to all classes of intelligent and cultivated readers.

EVERY SATURDAY will contain each week thirty-two large octavo pages, handsomely printed in double columns, with an engraved title.

TERMS.

Single Numbers, 10 cents.
Subscription price $5.00 per year, in advance.
MONTHLY PARTS will be issued, containing 128 pages each, handsomely bound in an attractive cover, price 50 cents. Subscription price, $5.00 per year, in advance.

1866. MAKE UP YOUR CLUBS.
THE NEW YORK NEWS,
The only Recognized Democratic Newspaper published in New York,
DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND WEEKLY.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEW YORK NEWS has battled against despotism for four years of blood and terror in assertion of the sanctity of the Constitution. A patriotism sufficiently broad to embrace both sections has been its only guide, and it refers now with honest pride to its record to show that it has not turned to the right or the left under all the violence of adult arguments.

True to its principles as THE NEWS has been through the reign of terror, it challenges public confidence in its honesty and independence for the future.

The political transition of the present day opens to THE NEWS a new and wider field of usefulness Standing now as it always has, on the inviolability of the Constitution, according to the interpretation of the strict constructionists, it presents a rallying ground for all, in both sections, who are friends of a generous conservatism. As a true and tried exponent of sectional amity it occupies a position which makes it the fitting mediator in holding up to the party of order in both sections, interests and principles that gave breadth and vitality to their alliance As an intersectional agent, devoted to freedom of election, to trial by jury, to the sanctity of the habeas corpus, and opposed now, as for four years of terror it has been, to the centralization that dares to trample on the rights of States. North or South, THE NEWS places itself as a candidate for support before the great body of this once free people.

The circumstances of the moment make the dissemination of the principles of THE NEWS a duty of individual patriotism. Every man who concurs in its doctrines must if he certain a true sense of freedom, do so in no spirit of indifference, but rather with the earnestness of a high trust. Justified, nay bound in his love of liberty to do so, the proprietor places the canvass he makes here of the public generally in the hands of those men who give him the approval of their consciences as his individual agents. Every reader of the THE NEWS cannot avoid the conviction of duty which is here pointed out as the ground of the request, that he urges his claims for a wider support upon all of his friends and neighbors who give their earnest sympathies to the cause of "strict construction," intersectional conciliation, and all the rights of the citizen under the system set up by our fathers of liberty regulated by law. The proprietor of THE NEWS calls, therefore, upon true and good conservatives throughout the country to discharge, to their convictions of political right at this great crisis in the country's fortunes, the duty of giving to the influence of his paper, daily, semi-weekly, or weekly, the wider power for good which it seeks here through the service of its individual supporters.

LARGEST
MANUFACTURING CHEMIST
IN THE WORLD.

I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

WM. WEIGHTMAN,

Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[From the Philad'a Evening Bulletin, Mar., 10.]

We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and Laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are

GENUINE PREPARATIONS,

And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using any thing pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.
